Current Academic Appointments

Yonsei University, Department of Communication 2021.03.01 - Present
Assistant Professor

Past Academic Appointments

Kookmin University, Department of Communication 2020.09.01 - 2021.02.28
Assistant Professor

University of Vienna, Department of Communication 2016.03 - 2020.06.30
Universitätsassistent, Post-Doc

University of Vienna, Department of Methods in the Social Sciences 2015.08 - 2016.02
Universitätsassistent, Post-Doc

Education

Ph.D in Communication (May 2015)
The Ohio State University, School of Communication

Advisor: Dr. William Paul Eveland, Jr.,

Committee: Dr. Michael A. Neblo, Dr. Neha Gondal, and Dr. Robert M. Bond.

Dissertation: A dynamic longitudinal examination of social networks and political behavior: The moderating effect of cohesive network structure and its implication for social influence processes.

M.A. in Communication (Aug 2011)
Graduate School of Communication and Arts, Yonsei University, South Korea

B.A. in Communication (Aug 2009)
Department of Communication, Yonsei University, South Korea

Research Interest

Political behaviors: informal political discussion and its impact, political knowledge and attitudes, electoral behaviors, social media and political engagement, social psychological process of mediated / interpersonal message and its impacts on political behaviors.

Advanced quantitative research methods: Computational social science methods, including statistical inference in cross-sectional and longitudinal social networks (ERGM, TERGM, and SAOM), text as data (LDA topic modeling), linear conditional process and structural equation modeling, multilevel analysis, big data and social media analytics
